

12th November 2020

Dear Parents

Anti-Bullying Week

Anti-Bullying week is happening from Monday 16th – Friday 20th November 2020 and this year's theme is: United against Bullying. During this event, we will be raising awareness of the damage that bullying can do, particularly to the young children in school. We all want our children to be happy and safe.

We will mark the start of next week with an Odd Socks Day. This is an opportunity for the children to express themselves and celebrate their individuality and what makes us all unique. All you have to do is wear odd socks!

Every November schools throughout the UK take part in Anti Bullying week. Last year 75% of schools in the country took part reaching well over 7 million young people.

So let your child dig out their stripy, spotty, patterned coloured socks, so they can join us Monday 16th to kick-start our week. Our usual uniform applies.

This year, more than ever, we've witnessed the positive power that society can have when we come together to tackle a common challenge - Together we can make it stop!

Yours sincerely
