Reception
Class

Hello everyone,

The first full week is over and hopefully your daughter/son has not been too tired. It does take a little while to get used to being in school for a full day. A full very busy day!

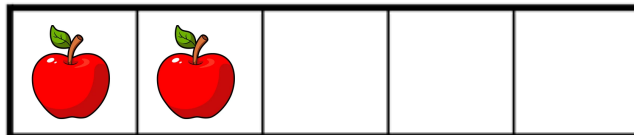

We have had a full week of learning and laughter and every child has shown me just how amazing they are. This year is going to be wonderful.

This week we are going to be learning lots more and this is related to our topic for the half term of: 'There's only one you'.

Thank you for your support
