

What we can do for you...

When you come to us for a free, impartial check-up, we promise:

- ✓ No judgement, we're here to help
- ✓ A listening ear
- ✓ Help with all money issues
- ✓ Assess your current benefits
- ✓ Tell you if you can claim others
- ✓ Help you appeal decisions
- ✓ Help you make the claims

Our team can give you a free benefits review and help you with money, jobs, housing and health. We can:

"I have a disabled son and I'm his carer. We were using the food bank. I went to Help at the Hub and they helped me claim disability living allowance for my son. They also told me I was eligible for a disabled child element on my Universal Credit.

Now, we get an extra £100 a week. It has made a huge difference to our lives."

In another case, Citizens Advice Wakefield District represented a resident at a telephone hearing for Personal Independence Payments (PIP).

The resident was successful and will receive an extra £8,158 each year (£680 each month).

Examples of how we helped

At the last roadshow in November, an extra £2,000 was achieved in increased or new income (on average) by people who were found to be entitled.

Whether you have been turned down for benefits or never applied, you might be entitled to a range of them, including:

- ✓ If you are disabled
- ✓ If you are a carer
- ✓ If you claim a pension
- ✓ If you are unemployed

More money in your pocket

Due to recent changes in family circumstances and qualifying criteria you may be entitled to more financial support. Especially if you are unemployed, working part-time, are a pensioner, a carer or have a disability.

You might qualify for increased benefits or grants. Come and meet our team of advisors if you are:

- ✓ Finding it hard to make ends meet
- ✓ Finding it difficult to pay your bills
- ✓ In rent or mortgage arrears
- ✓ Unemployed or working part-time with reduced income
- ✓ A carer or have a disability and you are living on low income
- ✓ In need of energy saving support
- ✓ In debt or at risk of losing your home
- ✓ Lost the £20 Universal Credit uplift

Come and talk to our benefits advisors at an event near you.
